

2.9 ADVANCED PLACEMENT

Original Date of Issue: 3/21/79

Revised: 5/11/99

The College recognizes advanced achievement in secondary schools by granting qualified students credit for such work.

By providing this opportunity, the College makes it possible for qualified students to begin college work at an advanced level and to shorten the time required to complete work toward the student's educational goals.